You just have to have the knowledge to work smarter, not harder and not spin your wheels buying ebooks and programs that just show you one small piece of the puzzle. Most of us found that out the hard way after months and thousands of dollars later that there truly are some true ways to make money online for free.

One way to make money online for free is to learn how to article market. You simply find a subject you are interested in and write an article. You then find an affiliate program which is one that will allow you to promote their products, sign up and begin promoting a product in an email or on a website. There are many websites such as Blogger and Squidoo that are completely free to use and very simple once you try them. Writing articles on a consistent basis will bring you earned income for a very long time if you write quality articles.

Before you begin writing your article, you must do a little keyword research. You must target the title of your article and the body of your article to the long phrases or long-tailed keyword phrases that does not have a lot of competition. If you do this, it is easy to rank on the first page of Google the very first time you follow these simple rules. This is called bum marketing because anyone off the street could do this and make money for free online.

If you could imagine that a bum off the street could learn in a few moments, with some guidance of course, how to generate sales from writing a simple 300 - 500 word article and inserting his affiliate link in there, I can imagine that you can do this too. The secret is the few moments of keyword research that you do before you write the title and the body of the article. Bum marketing is one of the simplest ways to make money online for free.

So, you see, there really is no excuse to make money online for free. You just have to know how. You don't have to have great grammar or spelling - since a spell-checker online can do that for you. So if a bum off the street can do this, you can too! Squidoo is a wonderful site to start your bum marketing because it is free.

If you begin today, you will see results (maybe not tomorrow), but soon after if you do your keyword research and follow through with what you find. You truly can begin to make $20 - $100 a day using these methods. It really does work. You just have to get started - now.

They just want the facts. And you have knowledge to give to them that you probably don't even realize anyone would want to hear. Sit down and think about what you like to talk about that doesn't even require a lot of thought. Bingo! You have just found something you can write about, maybe better than anyone else, if it is something that you love. Now, write that article and find out how to submit it to make some money online for free.
