

Karaoke Machine System Reviews - The Song Station Player

While a lot of karaoke enthusiasts are happy in building their own karaoke library, if you are after something a bit more advanced the perfect option is the SongStation Karaoke Machine.

The SongStation Karaoke Machine is the best karaoke system on the market, as it is the only one available with over 53,000 songs already pre-programmed. With such a large range at your disposal, it would be extremely hard to not find the perfect track that suits your style, and the set-up is so simplistic that it won't be long before you are selecting your favourite tracks again and again.

It is the perfect karaoke system for any home user because it takes no effort whatsoever to install and start using, simply plug into your TV and you're away. To enhance your singing connect the karaoke system to your existing hi-fi or amplifying system to create a true karaoke experience.

The SongStation is a great karaoke system for every enthusiast as it is fully compatible with a wide range of disc formats, making it more than just a karaoke system. Handling everything from DVD, CD+G, and MP3 formats, this means that the karaoke library has endless opportunities on how many songs it can hold, leaving all the other karaoke systems in its wake.

The features of the SongStation are amazing, and can turn your karaoke night with friends into a fantastic experience. Along with the ability of playing almost any karaoke disc format, you can pre-select up to 99 songs, or play "Karaoke Kamikaze" where you could be singing any programmed song at random!

The karaoke system also has an advanced performance scoring option, so you can finally compete with your friends and have a sure fire way to decide who is the best singer in the living room! The SongStation Karaoke Machine handle dual-microphone control inputs, customised welcome/greeting messages, and echo & digital 12 step melody, tempo and key control.

So if you are looking for a karaoke system that has all the options and features that the professionals use, while all at an affordable price, the SongStation Karaoke Machine is the perfect choice.

With the SongStation, there is no excuse why you shouldn't become the master of karaoke the next time you get up on stage.
